

International conference
CHURCH HISTORY BETWEEN ROME AND VILNIUS: CHALLENGES TO CHRISTIANITY FROM THE EARLY MODERN AGES TO THE 20TH CENTURY
Vilnius, September 22 - 23

September 22

10.30 - 11.00 - Opening remarks

Jonas Boruta (Ordinary bishop of Telšiai diocese)

Anton Pazos (President of Commission Internationale d'Histoire et d'Etudes du Christianisme)

Paulius Subačius (President of Lithuanian Catholic Academy of Science)

11.00-11.30

Umberto Mazzone (Bologna University)

The Apostolic Visitation as instrument of institutional control and social discipline in the Counterreformation Europe

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45-12.15

Clarinda E. Calma (Tischner European University, Kraków)

Edmund Campion's 'Rationes Decem': A Comparative Study of the Polish and English Translations

12.15-12.45

Dainora Pociūtė (Vilnius University)

Abraham Culvensis and the First Evangelical Confession of Faith in Lithuania

12.45-14.15 Lunch break

14.15-14.45

Wioletta Pawlikowska (Poznań University)

The challenge of Trent and the renewal of the Catholic Church in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania: the clergy of Vilnius and the problems of plural benefices and residence in the sixteenth century

14.45-15.15

Richard Butterwick (School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University College London)

From the implementation of the Tridentine reform to 'the enlightened age': challenges faced by the Catholic Church in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania in the eighteenth century

15.15-15.30 Coffee break

15.30-16.00

Sascha Hinkel (Münster University)

Critical online edition of the nuncial rapports of Eugenio Pacelli (1917-1929)

16.00-16.30

Valerio Perna (Udine University)

Italian and French diplomacy toward the Vatican-Lithuanian relations in the twenties and thirties

23 September

10.00-10.30

Alberto Melloni (Fondazione per le Scienze Religiose Giovanni XXIII, Bologna)

The Pius XI European Network

10.30-11.00

Regina Laukaitytė (The Lithuanian Institute of History)

The interests of the Church in Russia and among Russians

11.00-11.30

Darius Petkūnas (Klaipėda University)

The ecumenical relations among traditional Christian Churches in 1960-1980

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45-12.15

Stanislav Balík (Masaryk University, Brno)

Czech Reaction to the Second Vatican Council

12.15-12.45

Gerhard Lindemann (Institute for the Evangelical Theologie, TU Dresden)

Diverging experiences of Church under Communist dictatorship and in democracy: the German perspective

12.45-14.15 Lunch break

14.15-14.45

Arūnas Streikus (Vilnius University)

Catholicism in 20th Century Lithuania: between democracy and totalitarianism

14.45-15.15

Alar Kilp (Tartu University)

Historical reasons of the decline of religious affiliation: Communism, Confession or Church's relation with national identity?

15.15-15.30 Coffee break

15.30-16.30 Discussion

Projekto kodas: VP1-3.1-ŠMM-05-K-01-008

Lietuvos mokslų akademijos ir Lietuvių katalikų mokslo akademijos veiklos stiprinimas